A Hui Hou Ivan Cook

Long time Hawaii Island Humane Society foster and animal lover Ivan Cook passed away recently. As fosters, Ivan and his wife Karla took in kittens until they were healthy enough for adoption. They regularly contributed financially and attended our annual Howl'ween Dog Walks.

Employee SPOTLIGHT Waimea

Natalie Tavares

When Natalie Tavares moved to Waimea back in 2002, she was a natural fit at the HIHS Waimea Shelter having worked at the Maui Humane Society. This upcountry shelter veteran can sometimes be seen chasing cows on the road. "We have more large animal calls at the Waimea Shelter than Kona or Keaau and sometimes I'm out at night on calls," said Natalie. "Since I'm a horse person and networked in to the rodeo and ranching community, I can work my contacts around the island."

Asked if there is one animal that stands out among the thousands she has worked with, Natalie responded "Mana, she was an emaciated horse that we worked with to bring her back to health. In fact, Mana launched the Hawaii Horse Expo and the HIHS Horse Rescue Fund for abused and abandoned horses on this island."

Of course, all animals hold a special place in her heart and she takes every opportunity to educate the public on animal welfare. "I love my job as the HIHS Waimea Shelter Manager and love seeing animals adopted to their new homes," said Natalie. "There is never a dull moment at the shelter!"
